

VCCC Clinical Research Online Workshop

Constructing your Systematic Review

Who should attend:

Those interested in attending a practical and interactive workshop that introduces the steps involved in developing a Systematic Review.

Facilitators:

Led by the Clinical Research team (A/Prof Anita Horvath, Dr Nilakshi Waidyatillake and Dr Barbara White) from the Department of Medical Education, Melbourne Medical School, Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences, The University of Melbourne. For more information about the Master of Clinical Research, see: <https://study.unimelb.edu.au/find/courses/graduate/master-of-clinical-research/>

TIME	SESSION	FACILITATOR
8.30am	Registration
9.00am	Introduction to systematic reviews	Anita Horvath Nilakshi Waidyatillake Barbara White
9.30am	Plan your review; Forming your review question and defining search terms, inclusion and exclusion criteria: group activity.
10.30am	MORNING TEA
10.45am	Developing the protocol (PROSPERO) and Tools for your systematic review	Nilakshi Waidyatillake
11.15pm	Screening (Covidence /EndNote) and extracting data to develop results tables: group activity.
12.00pm	LUNCH
1.00pm	Quality assessment of individual studies	Anita Horvath Nilakshi Waidyatillake
1.45pm	Quality assessment group activity

2.45pm	AFTERNOON TEA
3.00pm	Constructing your systematic review (writing methods and results)	Nilakshi Waidyatillake
3.45pm	Activity based on PRISMA flow chart	Barbara White
4.15pm	Understanding Forest Plots	Nilakshi Waidyatillake
4.45pm	Q and A Session
5.00pm	FINISH	